

SHFC UPCOMING SPECIAL EVENTS:

Estate Planning Workshop

We are always looking for ways to protect our children. On April 6th at 7pm Attorney Beth Murphy will be offering an estate planning workshop at the South Hadley Family Center to share how we can protect our children in case of the unthinkable. She will be helping parents and guardians to understand their estate planning options. Beth will discuss issues such as wills, choosing guardians, trusts, estate tax planning, health care proxies, powers of attorney and living wills.

This seminar is FREE but registration is requested – email shfckids@yahoo.com.
Childcare is available with registration by April 1st - please note your need when you register.

ANNUAL CONCERT OF THE YOUNG CHILD

Wednesday, April 14, 2010 at 10am

in St. Patrick's Church Hall in South Hadley

We are thrilled to welcome musician Roger Tincknell to South Hadley as we celebrate the Week of the Young Child! Roger is a two-time Parents' Choice Award-winning recording artist with numerous CDs for children and adults. His albums include multicultural, environmental and family songs. Roger's repertoire includes original and contemporary material, as well as traditional folk styles. All young children and their caregivers welcome - invite a friend! Free 45 minute concert. Donations welcome.

3rd Annual Mom-to-Mom Sale

Saturday, May 1st from 8am - 12 Noon.
All Saint's Church Kidder Hall, South Hadley

Baby and children's clothing, toys, strollers, sporting goods, books, dvds, baby gear, maternity wear. Have you had your last? Need to thin toys? Outgrown clothes taking up space? Make your spring cleaning work for you! Rent a table for $15. Tell your friends! Contact shfckids@yahoo.com for more information. Or donate children's items for the Family Center to sell... proceeds to benefit the Family Center! Drop off donations in the box at the Family Center in April.

Buttery Brook Summer Concert Series

This annual series, co-hosted with the Friends of Buttery Brook, provides local families and day care providers with lovely musical events on Wednesdays at 10 AM throughout the month of July.

July 14 – Aric Bieganek is known locally as "The Jack Black of Kids' Music."

July 21 – Jay Mankita is an internationally acclaimed songwriter, guitarist.

July 28 – Leticia Davies brings us a high energy, multilingual music and movement performance.

